

FIS WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP MEDALLISTS

1956 Cortina, Italy *

Bronze – Lucile Wheeler (downhill)

1958 Bad Gastein, Austria

Two gold, one silver – Lucile Wheeler (downhill, giant slalom, combined)

1960 Squaw Valley, USA *

Two gold – Anne Heggtveit (slalom, combined)

1968 Grenoble, France *

Two gold, silver – Nancy Greene (giant slalom, combined, slalom)

1970 Val Gardena, Italy

Gold – Betsy Clifford (giant slalom)

1972 Sapporo, Japan

Bronze – Jim Hunter (combined)

1974 St Moritz, Switzerland

Silver – Betsy Clifford (downhill)

1976 Innsbruck, Austria *

Gold – Kathy Kreiner (giant slalom)

1980 Lake Placid, USA *

Bronze – Steve Podborski (downhill)

1982 Schladming, Austria

Gold – Gerry Sorensen (downhill)
Bronze - Laurie Graham (downhill)

1989 Vail, USA

Silver – Karen Percy (downhill)

1993 Morioka, Japan

Gold – Kate Pace (downhill)

2003 St. Moritz, Switzerland

Gold – Mélanie Turgeon (downhill)
Bronze - Allison Forsyth (giant slalom)

2007 Åre, Sweden

Silver – Jan Hudec (downhill)

2009 Inawashiro, Japan

Gold – Ashleigh McIvor (ski cross)
Bronze – Davey Barr (ski cross)

2009 Val d'Isere, France

Gold – John Kucera (downhill)
Bronze – Michael Janyk (slalom)

2011 Garmisch-Partenkirchen, Germany

Gold – Erik Guay (downhill)

2011 Deer Valley, USA

Gold – Chris Del Bosco (ski cross)

Gold – Kelsey Serwa (ski cross)

Silver – Julia Murray (ski cross)

* Olympic medallists were also considered world championship medallists until a rule change that took effect after 1980.

2013 Voss, Norway

Silver – Marielle Thompson (ski cross)

2015 Beaver Creek, U.S.A.

Silver – Dustin Cook (super G)

Silver – Team Event