- iv) sign and submit the COC athlete agreement and POCOG Conditions of Participation Form no later than January 1, 2018;

5.0 RANK LIST DEVELOPMENT, INTERNAL RANKING, PRE-QUALIFICATION, RACING ROSTER, QUALIFICATION PERIODS

Rank List Development:

- 5.11 Any World Cup 1st place race winner (excluding Alpine Combined) in season 2017/18 within the OWG qualification period, will automatically be pre-qualified for that specific discipline at PyeongChang 2018.
- 5.12 Rank list order will be determined by the allocation of WC points by rank 1-30 as per the FIS World Cup rules \(10.1\) for the qualifying WC results relative criteria category. Podium results in January 2018 within the OWG qualification period, will receive an allocation of WC points x 1.25. Eligible 2017 World Ski Championship results will be scored as per WC points schedule 10.1 in the FIS World Cup Rules.

5.13 The rank list will be prepared in priority sequence as follows:

1. Category I (CI)
2. Category I (CI) Injury Status
3. Category II (CII)
4. Category III (CIII)
5. Category IV (CIV) – please refer to 5.14 and 5.15

5.14 Category IV will only be applicable in the event additional quota spots are still available after qualifying Category I, Category II and Category III athletes have been ranked.

5.15 Should one or more unused Alpine quota spots still be available at the end of the qualifying period, only then can the CAST Alpine Staff at their sole discretion nominate up to two (2) athletes for the sole purpose of the Team Event within Category IV per 9.1 and 9.2.

5.16 For the speed events (DH, SG, AC) the process for naming the team racing roster will be clearly identified prior to the first training day in DH.

5.2 Event specific FINAL racing roster will be named at the sole discretion of the Head Coach and/or Alpine, Athletic Director within 24hrs of the planned event time, with the exception of the 'World cup winner' pre-qualified athletes per section 5.11.

5.3 FINAL Team Event roster will be named at the sole discretion of the Head Coach and/or Alpine, Athletic Director within 24hrs of the planned event time.

5.4 Qualification periods are clearly defined in sections 2.93, 2.94, 2.95. The three qualification periods are defined in accordance to the FIS quota allocation announcements, quota re-allocation periods and COC/POCOG DRM deadlines.

6.0 CATEGORY I “CI” Qualification

6.1 Athletes must achieve the following criteria to be nominated as Qualifying Athletes (Category I – “CI”):

(a) two top 12 results in any World Cup competition (Alpine-Combined and Team Event), with one top 12 World Cup result (Alpine-Combined and Team Event) during 2017-2018 season (within the qualifying period); or,

(b) one top 5 result in any World Cup competition during the 2017 – 2018 season (within the qualifying period); or,

(c) one top 12 result in a 2017 – 2018 World Cup competition (Alpine-Combined) and one of the following results or better at the 2017 St. Moritz World Championships:

Downhill:	12
Slalom:	12
Giant Slalom:	12
Super-G:	12
Alpine-Combined:	8
Team Event:	Does not count towards qualification

6.2 The CAST Alpine Staff may, in their sole discretion, nominate an athlete under “Injury Status” if:

(a) injury or illness prevents an athlete from competing in the World Cup for any portion of the Qualifying Period; and,

(b) the athlete has achieved results deemed by the CAST Alpine Staff to be comparable to Qualifying Criteria (Category I) during the injury-interrupted Qualifying Period.

6.3 An Injury Status athlete may only compete if the CAST Alpine Staff, in consultation with the CAST Medical Team, has determined the Injury Status athlete, after February 1, 2018 and prior to the last date under the IOC/POCOC Late Athlete Replacement Policy, has completed a prescribed rehabilitation program and is fit to race. Nomination based on Injury Status shall be communicated in writing within 24 hours of Team Selection Meeting to be effective.

6.4 In the Selection Process, Category I Qualifying Athletes shall have first priority and Category I comparable Injury Status athletes (as per 5.13) shall have second priority.

7.0 CATEGORY II “CII” Qualification

7.1 The Potential Future Medalist Category (Category II) applies to male athletes born 1992 or later or female athletes born 1994 or later that do not meet Category I Performance Criteria, have yet to be selected for the Olympic Winter Games and who achieve the following performance criteria established by the CAST Alpine Staff to identify potential medalists for the 2022 Beijing Winter Olympics:

i) Two results in the World Cup top 30 (Alpine-Combined and Team Event), with one of the results achieved during the 2017 – 2018 competitive season; or, ii) A gold medal performance in any event (excluding the All Around Combined event and Team Event) at the 2017 World Junior Championships.

8.0 CATEGORY III “CIII” Qualification

8.1 Coaches’ Discretion Category (Category III) is for athletes that do not meet the performance criteria of Category I or the age requirements of Category II and have achieved two top 20 World Cup results (excluding Alpine Combined and Team Event) during the Qualifying Period and have achieved at least one of these results in the 2017 – 2018 competitive season.

9.0 CATEGORY IV “CIV” Qualification

9.1 Team Event Coaches’ Discretion Category (Category IV): CAST Alpine Staff may, at their sole discretion, nominate up to two (2) additional athletes specifically for the Alpine Team Event.

9.2 CAST Alpine Staff shall select Category II, Category III and Category IV athletes based on the discretionary evaluation of any factors deemed relevant to meet the Objectives of this Policy. These factors may include: an evaluation of technical skiing abilities, previous motivation and performance, attitude and commitment, outstanding results, general level of physical fitness, injury history and athletic potential. The CAST Alpine Staff shall be free to weigh these and any other relevant factors to meet the Objectives of this Policy.

11.0 REMOVAL OF ATHLETES

11.1 The Alpine Athletic Director may, at any time, and at his/her/their discretion, disqualify an athlete from being considered for nomination to the Canadian Team based on current or past behavior of the athlete which is inconsistent with Alpine Canada's Code of Conduct. A copy of the Code of Conduct is available in the Athlete Agreement. ACA will advise the affected athlete, in writing, of his/her/their decision.

11.2 An athlete will be removed from consideration if he/she is in violation of any anti-doping policy or procedure as outlined by ACA, International Ski Federation (FIS), World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA), and the Canadian Centre for Ethics in Sport (CCES).

12.0 REPLACEMENT ATHLETES

12.1 If any athlete selected by the COC is not "fit to race" prior to competition, a replacement athlete may be provisionally nominated to the Team from other athletes meeting minimum performance criteria, in the sole discretion of the Alpine, Athletic Director by January 21, 2018 and subject to the approval of the COC Team Selection Committee and IOC/POCOG Late Athlete Replacement Policy.

13.0 UNFORESEEN CIRCUMSTANCES AND REVISIONS

13.1 In situations where unforeseen circumstances do not allow the selection process to be applied in the manner set out in this policy, the Alpine, Athletic Director reserves the right to determine an appropriate course of action.

13.2 The Alpine, Athletic Director may exercise discretion to revise this agreement prior to the end of the Qualifying Period with any revisions as may be reasonably necessary to avoid disputes over the interpretation of the Selection Process. ACA shall inform CAST athletes and COC in writing of any such revisions forthwith. This clause shall not be used to justify changes after a competition or trials which formed part of these Internal Nomination Procedures unless it is related to an unforeseen circumstance. This is to allow for changes to this document that may become necessary due to a typographical error or a lack of clarity in a definition or wording.

14.0 TEAM SELECTION MEETING

14.1 The CAST Alpine Staff shall conduct the Team nomination ranking list meeting, on January 17, 2018 by teleconference or in person, Kitzbuhel, Austria, forthwith after the last World Cup competition on January 16, 2018 to identify the ranking list. The sole record of the Team nomination ranking list meeting shall be the meeting minutes which shall refer to the Category-specific criteria for each athlete considered, any applicable comments and the final nomination, and attach the results of the athletes considered over the 2016 – 2017 and 2017 - 2018 seasons and the 2016 – 2017 Season End Evaluations.

- 14.2 The Team nomination-ranking list will be updated upon the conclusion of Qualifying Period 2 in conjunction with the FIS OWG Alpine quota reallocation timelines.
- 14.3 The ranking list shall be used to nominate the 'Team' as the Alpine OWG quota re-allocations from the FIS become clear and final.
- 14.4 The final OWG Team Nomination list will be confirmed after the final WC event on January 28, 2018 (end of qualification period 3).
- 14.5 When the CAST Alpine Staff has reached a consensus relative to the final nomination of athletes, the Alpine, Athletic Director shall no later than twenty-four (24) hours afterwards notify by phone or e-mail those athletes that were eligible for selection, whether or not those athletes were nominated.

15.0 APPEALS

- 15.1 The provisions and timelines found under the Appeal Procedure of the Nomination Guidelines for Selection to the Canadian Alpine Ski Team then in force shall apply. Any dispute relating to the Alpine Canada internal nomination procedures for the 2018 Olympic Games must be brought directly to the SDRCC on the consent of all parties and in the discretion of the SDRCC.
- 15.2 The applicable law to the Olympic selection criteria is the law of Alberta and applicable federal law.

16.0 ATHLETE ACKNOWLEDGMENT

16.1 To be eligible for selection, all potential Team members are required to read, sign and return the attached Athlete Acknowledgment and Acceptance form to Alpine Canada prior to December 31, 2016. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the athlete being ineligible for nomination.

16.2 If the potential team member has not reached the age of legal majority (18 years of age) prior to the 2017 – 2018 competitive season, the Parent or Legal Guardian is also required to read and sign the acknowledgment.
