

Canadian Para-Alpine Ski Team Guide Required

The Canadian Para-Alpine Ski Team is currently looking for a guide for current Para Alpine Ski Team athlete Mac Marcoux. Someone with FIS racing experience is mandatory, and he/she must still be confident racing all disciplines. A guide acts as eyes for the athlete, so the communication and team commitment between the athlete and guide are crucial to success.

As a full member of the National Ski Team, you will get to race and train in venues in Europe, Asia and the southern hemisphere. Travel expenses are covered and the athlete would also be eligible to receive monthly funding under the Sport Canada Athlete Assistance Program. We are looking for someone who will be able to commit for four World Cup seasons (2019 – 2022).

If this team experience is of interest to you or anyone you know, please contact CPAST Athletic Director Matt Hallat at mhallat@alpinecanada.org.
